

GOLDMAN SACHS: The GS Guide to Hong Kong

Our Hong Kong office, opened in 1983, recognizes the role of this port territory as a vital financial bridge for Asia

Hong Kong means 'fragrant harbor' in Cantonese

Our Hong Kong offices are in the heart of the city – we have space in Cheung Kong Center and Lee Gardens

The view of Victoria Harbor from our office is second to none and remains the best perk around

The peak is Hong Kong Island's highest point, rising 1,300 feet above sea level. The Peak Tram passes the city's buildings at an almost impossible gradient!

Through Community TeamWorks we've been able to share the experience of the Chinese Opera with underprivileged children

Eating mooncake during Mid Autumn Festival signifies giving thanks to the harvest and harmonious unions

Almost 65% of Hong Kong is made up of parks, beaches and mountains

The Hong Kong to Macau Bridge is the world's longest sea crossing and a modern day wonder

Quotes:

- "Hong Kong is not just about shopping and dining – it has scenic hiking trails and is easily accessible" – Francesca, Global Markets
- "Having a wellness/fitness center on our floor means I can pop to a gym class at lunch, shower (blow dry my hair) and be back at my desk within the hour!" – Claire, Human Capital Management
- "Hong Kong is a vibrant combination of local temples, historical buildings and street food; all sharing space with modern architecture, high-end shops and amazing Michelin star restaurants" – James, Human Capital Management
- "We love the Lion-Dance during Lunar New Year. Request the auspicious Lion to visit your desk and chew a lettuce to bring about prosperity and luck!" – Gloria, Consumer and Wealth Management

Our Favorite Foods:

Central and Causeway Bay Districts, where our offices are located, offer a diverse choice of local and international cuisines

- Dim Sum
- Vietnamese Pho

- Sushi

Our Hidden Gems of Nature Include:

- Lantau Peak, known for spectacular sunrises and its view of the Big Buddha
- Clearwater Bay. Sparkling blue waters and pristine sand – ‘positively tropical’

See yourself here. Click the apply button on our students or professionals pages to explore opportunities in Hong Kong and around the world