

GOLDMAN SACHS: The GS Guide to Shanghai

Opened in 1994, our Goldman Sachs Shanghai office provides a wide range of financial services to local and global clients

Shanghai, meaning “above/upon the sea,” which alludes to the city’s location along the Yangtze River Delta

Our Shanghai office is beside the Huangpu River and the Oriental Pearl Tower

White Yulan is the official city flower of Shanghai

The Shanghai Tower is among the tallest buildings in the world, standing 2,073 feet tall

The Shanghai / Hong Kong Stock Connect is a unique collaboration between exchanges, allowing international and mainland Chinese investors to trade securities across markets

Many international expos and exhibitions are held in Shanghai

Quotes:

- “The annual ‘Bring Your Kids to the Office’ event helps to integrate work and family – and kids love it” – Elaine, Global Markets
- “There are all kinds of employee clubs you can join, such as badminton club, hot pot club or board game club” – Boya, Global Markets
- “Our office is right on top of the subway station (Shanghai Metro Line 2) – great for an easy commute” – Eric, Consumer and Wealth Management
- “Shanghai is a very convenient, robust and international city” – Hua, Consumer and Wealth Management
- “Shanghai as a metropolis provides everything – it’s blended with flavors from across the country and all over the world” – Elaine, Engineering
- “Our office has gorgeous views of the city” – Cecilia, Global Investment Research

There are many wonderful restaurants along the river front, offering our favorites:

- Hairy Crab
- Xiao Long Bao (traditional dumplings)

Our Favorite Landmarks:

- Jing’an Temple
- The Bund
- Shanghai Museum

Our favorite things to do:

- Jog along The Bund, go to fancy restaurants or bars, bike around the French concession, and enjoy world class performances and exhibitions

See yourself here. Click the apply button on our students or professionals pages to explore opportunities in Shanghai and around the world