

GOLDMAN SACHS: The GS Guide to Tokyo

Our Tokyo office, in the vibrant Roppongi neighborhood, is our original center in Asia, established in 1974

Tokyo was originally a small fishing village named Edo

Our office is at Roppongi 6-chrome, Minato-Ku

Catering to millions of passengers daily, Shinjuku Station is the busiest in the world!

The sunset view of Mount Fuji from the office is hard to beat!

Japan has over 50,000+ convenience stores with 7,000 in Tokyo

The Shibuya Crossing is the world's busiest. No wonder it's nicknamed – "The Scramble"

Sushi is an occasional food, mostly reserved for special occasions

Inspired by the Eiffel Tower, Tokyo Tower is a great place to see views of the city

Baseball is one of the most popular sports in Japan. Our people's favorite teams include the Tokyo Giants and the Hiroshima Carp

Through Community TeamWorks, employees participate in volunteer projects to help local nonprofit organizations

Tokyo's Imperial Palace's inner grounds are open on the Emperor's birthday and New Year and are a 9-minute drive from our office

Quotes:

- "Tokyo's super safe and clean, despite the fact that there are very few garbage bins" – Chikako, Human Capital Management
- "Our childcare center makes my life so much easier, and the staff there are so nice" – Julia, Executive Office
- "Mohri Garden is close to our office for picnics and strolls" – Kokseng, Internal Audit
- "There is an observation deck and museum in our office building – free for our staff" – Taimu, Global Markets
- "The city is convenient for traveling to other towns – hiking – skiing etc., all within an hour away" – Pranav, Controllers

Our favorite foods:

- Sushi
- Vietnamese Noodles
- Pizza

- Burgers
- Sandwiches

See yourself here. Click the apply button on our students or professionals pages to explore opportunities in Tokyo and around the world